Pass the Faith, Please!

The nourishment we receive at the Eucharistic table is as important to “pass” on as the nourishment we receive through food at the dinner table.

Wednesday, October 7, 2009

6:30 - 8:30pm

St. Pius X Hall

If you have questions or need child-care contact Trish (SEAS) @ 393-3778

How are parents “faith connectors” for their children?

How do our family
schedules reflect our
priority of church
experiences?

What is the faith we are passing on?

What can we do to get our kids to
take “extra helpings”
of what we
pass on to them?

Passing on the faith is tougher than ever these days! There are so many demands on our time and energy that some days it may seem almost impossible. Through this presentation parents will be encouraged to hear that their children are listening and largely following in the parental footsteps in matters of faith.

This is a night you don't want to miss...
pass it on!!!

our parishes have to say after hearing Bob McCarty speak about
his career in working with Catholic youths...

“After Bob’s presentation, I went up to him and told him every parent needed to hear his message! He has a style that is engaging and understandable. He takes a serious subject and gives insights without being too heavy by inserting good stories and humor.”

“I really liked that he challenged us to meet youth where they are, not to always expect that they will be where we want them to be. I thought he made some very good points about changes in how we were raised and how we are raising our children, and the changes in the Church over those years. I also liked
